Attention, Saloonists! Common Sense Talks

Stop Wasting Money By Advertising!

A BETTER WAY HAS BEEN FOUND!

It is said that out in Wichita, Kansas, they have found how to get the greatest number of men to drink the greatest amount of liquor.

In that city the thirsty soul is personally conducted through a long, dimly-lighted hall, up a stairway with no light, through another long hall with no light, the conductor takes a key from his pocket, unlocks a door, and with his charge enters a room with no light, knocks mysteriously at a door from which comes no sound and the two are admitted into a room in which are a saloon, bar and many drinkers.

When, as it is alleged, so much more liquor can be sold by hiding it away like that where only the initiated and trusted can find it, why do you spend good money advertising along the public roads on specially constructed bill boards, 3 feet by 6 feet, with the striking figure of a government officer in military cap and uniform assuring the passer-by that the Government is behind every gallon of Sunny Brook liquor?

Learn Better Business Methods

Learn from the Prohibition states how to sell the greatest amount of liquor!

One of the most prominent men in the city told the writer of this eminently successful plan of increasing the consumption of intoxicating liquors and I pass it on to you.

This citizen will vote to perpetuate the saloon in Maysville because he is afraid that some one here will adopt the long, unlighted, unadvertised hall method and increase the consumption of liquor in our midst.

NOTE, Brewers and Distillers

This prominent citizen is voting against your interests. He wants to keep the sale of liquor at the minimum by perpetuating the old, antiquated, ineffective method of selling it through the open saloon.—Adv.

Miss Emma B. Lumann left Saturday night for New York, in the interest of her business. Mrs. Harry Clark and Miss Stella Archdeacon accompanied her.

The Optimist.

It has been suggested by the advocates of prohibition that the voters of Mason County outside of the City of Maysville have no interest in the welfare of Maysville. Let us see.

Fully 90 per cent of the products of Mason County is marketed in and through Maysville.

Fully 90 per cent of the commodities used in Mason County are procured in Maysville. A large part of the financial enterprises of Mason County are financed in Maysville. The farmer can procure any thing that he needs or wishes in Maysville. He can sell anything he has in Maysville at a fair market price in Maysville, and he can sell it at any time, and he can sell it for cash.

In these matters, however, Maysville and Mason County are helpful each to the other. The inter-dependant and mutually helpful to each other. The merchant courts the farmer, and profits by his patronage. The farmer patronizing the merchant and makes or saves by doing so. Both are therefore mutually benefitted. Every farmer values his land higher in proportion to its availability to Maysville markets. Every merchant values his business because of the patronage derived from the rich agricultural communities in Mason County.

Does every such tax payer feel like voting $20.00 out of his own pocket, in order to try an experiment, which has been an absolute failure, morally and financially in every metropolitan community in which it has ever been tried?

Mr. Bernard Hanley left Monday for Dayton, Ohio, where he will matriculate at St. Mary's college.

HOSE THIEF CAPTURED.

Frank Keelman, aged about 25, was arrested near Petersville, Lewis county, yesterday and brought to this city and charged with stealing a horse from the lot of Mr. Dan Maher, on the Pleasant Ridge Pike, near Murphysville.

Mr. Charles Slattery and Mr. Maher's son, William trailed Keelman in an automobile and when they went into Lewis county they got Deputy Sheriff Lykins to go with them and make the arrest.

They found that Keelman had sold the horse, saddle and bridle to the Sheriff's son for $50.

Keelman was placed in jail and will be given a hearing later.

KENTUCKY'S BAD SHOWING.

The Evening Post of Louisville reprints from an automobile journal a list of figures showing the number of automobiles in each state. Kentucky has only 6,376 and is ahead of no state save West Virginia, Utah, Arkansas, Arizona, Oklahoma, Montana, Delaware, Idaho, Louisiana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Mississippi and Nevada. Even teeny weeny Rhode Island has twice as many automobiles as Kentucky. Florida, with a small mileage of good roads, has 9,578. Little Maryland has three times as many as Kentucky. Minnesota has ten times as many. Indiana has 50,000 more automobiles than Kentucky. Think of it.

And why?

Undevelopment, lack of railroads, electric and steam, a vicious taxing system which discourages the investment of capital.

Kentucky is way behind the times in some respects. Isn't it time to confess it frankly and set about intelligently the business of getting up to date? When Indiana's prosperity is reflected by the ownership of 50,000 automobiles in excess of the number in Kentucky, let us have no more bombast about the good whisky, the fast horses and the beautiful women of Kentucky. Let us talk, not pessimistically, but constructively, about what ought to be done to make Kentucky rich enough to own about 50,000 more automobiles.—Frankfort State Journal.

PITY THE GERMAN CHILDREN

THE COMING WINTER.

"The German school system is bound to receive a serious set-back by the present war," declared Dr. J. M. Withrow, President of the Board of Education. Dr. Withrow had returned home from Europe Sunday. "When I left Germany there did not seem to be any likelihood of the schools opening for the winter. The school plants were being used pretty generally everywhere as recruiting stations and temporary barracks for newly organized regiments or troops passing through. I could not learn, though I tried, whether or not the teachers were being called to military service. Even after the mobilization there seemed to be plenty of men of the military age left in Munich and the other cities I visited, though in the country districts this was not true—everybody had gone from there. So I suppose there was some condition under which men were exempt from service."—Times-Star.

"CIVILIZED BARBARIANS," MAYBE.

Is there any such thing as Christianity in the world? Is the thing we call "Civilization" a myth? Because the Courier-Journal has been saying that the Brotherhood of Man has not yet arrived, it has been charged with being an enemy of peace. Because it has advocated at times drastic measures intended to save life and property—as the occupation of Mexico for example—it has been accused of being a jingo. God forbid!—Courier-Journal.

WAR AND THE TARIFF.

Intimations are given out from Washington that the loss of revenue from customs, due to the falling off in imports owing to the European war, must be met in some way. On the one hand it is proposed to levy new taxes, on the other to raise money to meet the threatened deficit by a sale of bonds.

The sale of bonds would be the better way. By the sale of bonds gold would be drawn into the Treasury and the bonds be available for additional circulation by the banks.

The errors of the Wilson Tariff are thus again made evident. Under the Payne-Aldrich Tariff the Treasury was kept full to overflowing and in a condition to meet any emergency demands. Under that tariff and the Dingley Tariff the country had ample money to pay all expenses and build the Panama Canal, without any hint of a deficit. Yet under the Wilson Tariff plan the first strain finds the country face to face with the need for getting more money for the Treasury.

A deficit in revenue was in sight, war or no war. Its appearance will give the administration a good excuse for blaming the war for its own shortsighted policy in tariff making.—Binghamton, N. Y., Republican Herald.

CIVILIZATION DOTH PROTEST TOO MUCH.

As for the demonstration of aerial offense, the story from Antwerp is not to the credit of the air gunners. It is not to be assumed that they intended to devastate private dwellings and slaughter innocents. That result was due to the inaccuracy of their aim and the inefficiency of their craft as a fighting machine. If offensive warfare from the sky is necessary to be accompanied by such unmentionable slaughter, civilization will protest against it.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

LET EVERY INFLUENCE BE FOR PEACE.

The war in Europe has set in motion forces so colossal and stirred passions so profound that talk of peace may at the moment appear futile and idle. Yet the world is increasingly controlled by the sentiment of its people, and no effort to bring about peace, be it ever so small, is without its effect.

Mankind everywhere is opposed to war, and the terrible lesson of Europe has increased that sentiment amazingly.—Hamilton, O., Republican.

STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

The Star Spangled Banner will be sung in all the Kentucky schools on September 14th, if the recommendation of the State Superintendent be heeded. That day will be the anniversary of the writing of Francis Scott Keyes' national song. It will require no special effort to comply with this call in the Maysville schools, for almost daily it is sung now and has been for several years!

THE WORLD'S O. K. IS ON GRAPE JUICE.

Grape juice diplomacy seems to have kept the United States in good shape though the chief ingredient is weak and inoffensive.—Commercial Tribune.

A Socialist writer, in bemoaning the fact of war, says: "To me the tragedy is that whoever wins, my brother is defeated." It is too bad that the world did not thrill with that sentiment before the war started. All attempt to place the blame for the war is unwise and mostly unfair, but this one underlying cause may be asserted—the lack of the sense of brotherhood.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

And the "innocent bystander" is just now having the time of his life in Europe saving his own corporosity.

IDENTIFYING HIMSELF.

"What are you anyway," contemptuously inquired Mrs. Peck during the quarrel, "a man or a mouse?"

"A man," answered Henry Peck, bitterly. "If I were a mouse I'd have you up on that table right now yelling for help."

Many Maysville Citizens Have Profited
By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. There are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments — are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merits in many tests. Maysville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Gallenstein, blacksmith, Poplar St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney remedies. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equaled this one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I had relief of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."

Mr. Gallenstein is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Gallenstein had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50¢ a week. The work of the Methodist Episcopal church in Europe began in 1849, the first missionary, Rev. Ludwig S. Jacoby, going that year to Bremen. In 1853 work began in Sweden and Norway and in 1857 in Denmark and Bulgaria. In Italy the work of the church began in 1872, Rev. Leroy M. Vernon being the first Methodist missionary to that country. In Russia and France the work dates from 1907.

Rev. Otto Liebner, a converted Jew, sailed recently from New York for Peking, Burma, where he goes as a missionary under the Methodist Episcopal Board of Foreign Missions. He is a graduate of the Bible Teachers' Training School of New York. Ten years ago he was converted in Hadley Rescue Hall and he is the first convert of that famous mission to go to the foreign field.

THE MATCHLESS MIDWAY COMING

"Beat Last Year," is the Slogan of the State Fair Management

ties, the Matinee Girls Musical Comedy; Monster Plantation Show; Streets of Cairo; Mexican Village; pit shows, midgets, freaks and all the other concomitants of an up-to-date Carnival.

Bands will keep up the gala atmosphere and the Carnival fronts, lights and decorations will be the greatest ever witnessed at a Kentucky State Fair.

IS YOUR BABY A "PERFECT" DARLING

Every Mother Thinks Her's Flawless The Babies' Health Contest Will Tell—Scientific Examination and Competition.

"Beat last year!" is the slogan of the State Fair management which keeps the efforts and energies of the entire working organization on the crescendo each season and which makes a forecast for the coming celebrations a dizzying process, but for the fair of September 14-19, Secretary J. L. Dent has achieved a coup in securing the Rice & Dore aggregation for the Midway that places the amusement end of the twelfth annual festival safely under the wire of victorious superiority.

Than the Rice & Dore Carnival shows there is no better organization of the kind extant and they will offer pleasure seekers at the fair a lengthly list of new and alluring novelties.

Among the number will be the Water Circus, unique adjunct to a traveling organization. The Water Show is an aggregation of aquatic marvels in which thirty performers take part, and which all the wonders and witcheries of the New York Hippodrome Tank is displayed. There are world's champion male and female divers and swimmers, log rollers, water walkers, high diving dogs and ponies, clown stunts and the amazing fact that whenever a performer's act is finished they disappear beneath the waves never to appear visible on the surface again, during that particular show, at least. The exhibition is a whirlwind of fun, mystery, and thrill, devoid of a single objectionable or risqué feature and something that State Fair audiences have never witnessed heretofore.

And in this reply is demonstrated the march of progress which leads a Fair management to feature a baby show based on scientific appraisement of the physical condition of a child instead of on the beauty of its dimples, curl or limpid eyes, and the growing enlightenment of parents who seek to discover the shortcomings of their offspring as scientific stock raisers gauge the merits of their cattle, instead of glowing over ephemeral loveliness which might soon be dimmed by ailments or deformities unsuspected by baby's loving guardians.

The Health Contest is a movement which has swept with amazing rapidity over the entire country and was introduced at the State Fair last season for the first time in the history of the State.

The object of the Health Contest is the promotion of hygienic methods in child raising along much the same lines as fair exhibitors follow in scientific stock raising and appraising.

The movement was first introduced as an offspring of the Mothers' Health Congress held at the Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport in 1908, and the importance of the results were so universally recognized that states nearly all over the union rapidly followed suit.

The Babies' Health Contest will, this year, be under the supervision of Mrs. John D. Woodbury, and examinations will be made during the first three days of the Fair in a newly constructed Babies' building which will have transparent walls through which spectators may observe the processes of measuring and weighing the toddlers. Babies from 12 to 26 months are eligible and the entry lists will not close until September 8. Entry blanks for the Babies' Health Contest may be obtained by application to Kentucky State Fair headquarters in the Paul Jones building.

In deference to numerous inquiries and requests last season for an entry class for twins in the Babies' contest, this department has been added and twins will be judged on a separate standard of merit.

The Kentucky State Fair management has arranged a free amusement program which alone is worth the price of admission.

The small demand for crude oil, attributed by conditions due to the war in Europe, has caused a still further reduction in petroleum production in Kentucky.

WAR WILL BREED NEW INDUSTRIES

It Proves That We Cannot Afford to Be Dependent Upon Europe for Anything.

(Washington Post.)

Out of the present war in Europe there is certain to come a strong demand in this country for the fostering of new industries which will produce the articles now obtained from foreign countries. The growth of the tin-plate industry in the United States immediately following the establishment of a protective Tariff is an example of what can be done with regard to other industries not located in this country at the present time.

The war is showing that the country cannot afford to be dependent upon Europe for anything necessary to the growth and prosperity of the United States. Realizing the opportunity for driving the argument home at this time, A. D. Juilliard, chairman of the executive committee of the American Protective Tariff League, has sent out a request to all manufacturers and producers, as follows:

Please report to us any article or articles, raw material or finished product, of use in agriculture, mining, or manufacture in the United States for the supply of which we are dependent upon any foreign country.

The census thus taken should be invaluable to Congress when that body turns to the task of restoring the Protective Tariff. It will be found that there are a great many articles which might be produced here if the proper Protection were afforded. Just as the country had a striking example of what protection can do in the quick growth of the tin-plate industry, the reverse side of the argument has been shown in the closing of many factories since the Tariff was lowered.

The country is depending to a very large extent on Chilli for agricultural fertilizers. Millions of dollars are paid annually to that country for the nitrate needed by the farmers of the United States. Nevertheless, when large interests tried to locate in the United States they were discouraged and went to Canada, which is now collecting additional revenue from what should be a strong American industry.

Many lessons will be learned from the European war, but none of more importance than the lesson that the United States must make itself economically independent of the world so far as may be possible.

AYBE it is an old fashioned idea this notion of putting all the value possible into the car itself—and as little as possible into overhead expense—

But it has given the Paige a positively dominant position among cars of medium price—

Ample capital for operating purposes—no bonded indebtedness—no excessive capitalization—no heavy overhead of any kind to be paid for.

Just a full dollar of car value for every dollar of the selling price.

Is it any wonder that the Paige is going to be oversold again this year in spite of increased production?
